V Valuation of applications and public disclosure of results

19. Applications are assessed by the Expert committee of the Film Fund of Estonian Islands, which consist of the representative(s) of the financier(s), the founder(s) of the film fund and the independent expert(s).
20. The review of the application is organised by the Expert committee in two rounds:
- 20.1. in the first round the conformity with the requirements of the application and the compliance with the goals of the Film Fund of Estonian Islands are assessed. If necessary, a recommendation is made to the applicant for the amendments and improvements in the application;
 - 20.2. in the second round the summary of the application is made and the maximum rate of co-financing by the Film Fund of Estonian Islands, which can be up to 40% of the eligible costs, is determined.
21. The decisions for grant allocations are made by the Expert committee, which also establishes the regulations for the procedure. Decisions are made at meetings by public voting. To satisfy the application the simple majority of vote of the Expert committee is required.
22. During the valuation of the application the Expert committee has the right:
- 22.1. to invite the applicant to be present for the submission of the application and answering the questions;
 - 22.2. to invite experts and other specialists to give opinions/valuations.
23. The Expert committee shall make a decision concerning the application within 30 working days since the submission of the complete application (including all amendments and improvements made).
24. The Expert committee shall make a separate decision per each application.

25. In case the application is satisfied, the Expert committee shall make a decision concerning the co-financing rate established by the Film Fund of the Estonian Islands.
26. Before the co-financing contract is concluded, the Expert committee has the right:
 - 26.1. to request additional information from the applicant;
 - 26.2. to change the valuation of the expenditure in the submitted application by changing the qualification of certain expenditure items between eligible and non-eligible expenditure;
 - 26.3. to change, based on the applicant's well-founded application, the valuation of expenditure without changing the amount of the allocated grant.
27. The Expert committee's decision about the application shall be publicly disclosed after being confirmed on the web page of the Saaremaa Development Centre/Film Fund of Estonian Islands.
28. The co-financing contract shall not be signed in case it becomes apparent before signing that the applicant has deliberately submitted false data or within the application valuation process has tried to obtain confidential information or influence the decision-making process.

VI Co-financing contract

29. SAK shall sign the applicant's written co-financing contract after all established requirements are met. Until the co-financing contract is not signed, the decision to satisfy the contract shall not be binding to the Film Fund of Estonian Islands and the Saaremaa Development Centre.
30. The co-financing contract shall be signed when the partners have allocated the Film Fund of Estonian Islands funds at least within the sum required for the grant. Before signing the Film Fund of Estonian Islands has the right, in case it is necessary, to decrease the planned grant sum in conformity with the financial resources available for the Film Fund of Estonian Islands, and the Saaremaa Development Fund may refuse to sign the co-financing contract if the financial resources are not allocated to the Film Fund of Estonian Islands.
31. In case the available financial funds are limited, the preferred applicants are the ones whose planned activities in Saare County are the biggest.
32. The approved decision of co-financing shall be valid for six months after the partners' confirmation. During this period the co-financing contract has to be signed. This period may be extended by the partners' decision if the applicant has submitted a corresponding well-founded application to the Saaremaa Development Centre.
33. By the co-financing contract the realisation schedule of the film project or film and media literacy teaching project is established. Also the planned expenditure made in Saare County shall be determined, the maximum rate of co-financing of the Film Fund of Estonian Islands and other conditions, which shall be binding in the realisation of the film project or the film and media literacy teaching project, are fixed.
34. In case no applications are submitted to the Film Fund of Estonian Islands and/or no sums are allocated, the funds shall be transferred to the next application round.

VII Grant allocation

35. The grant is allocated in conformity with the co-financing contract after the grant recipient has submitted to the Saaremaa Development Centre the expenditure report together with the copies of expenditure documents after the completed realisation of the film project or film and media literacy teaching project, but not later than by March 31 of the next year.

36. The Saaremaa Development Centre shall review the report of the film project realisation, the report of the use of financial resources and the expenditure report, including the expenditure made within the realisation of the film project or the film and the media literacy teaching project in Saare County within 20 working days, involving the Expert committee or other independent experts if necessary. It is assessed whether the realisation of the film project, the use of money and the expenditure made in Saare County are in conformity with the co-financing contract. Thereafter the reports are submitted to the Expert committee for verification. The Expert committee shall confirm the report within 14 working days.
37. In case the reports are approved, the Saaremaa Development Centre calculates the size of the compensation sum for the grant recipient according to the co-financing contract.
38. The Saaremaa Development Centre has the right to request additional information and documents to confirm the expenditure made during the realisation of the project.
39. Documents confirming the expenditure are the copies of documents as follows:
 - 39.1. payment orders for paying the invoices confirmed by the bank;
 - 39.2. receipts;
 - 39.3. cheques of electronic cash registers;
 - 39.4. other accounting documents.
40. The grant shall be paid within 14 working days after the Expert committee has made a decision concerning the conformity of the realised film project or film and media literacy teaching project to the established requirements and about the payment of the grant.
41. The Expert committee has the right to decrease the grant in case:
 - 41.1. the on-site expenses do not match the forecast;
 - 41.2. the expenses on the grant recipient's expenditure list proved by documents are unreasonably higher than the market prices;
 - 41.3. the grant recipient leaves the report of the realisation of the film project or film and media literacy teaching project unfounded and without any advance notice fails to submit the report by the deadline;
42. The Expert committee has the right not to allocate the grant in case the grant recipient:
 - 42.1. has misled the Expert committee, the Saaremaa Development Centre or the Film Fund of the Estonian Islands in any way;
 - 42.2. has not submitted the required documents by the deadline;
 - 42.3. has not submitted the documents to prove expenditure or other required documents by the deadline;
 - 42.4. has used the financial resources allocated for the realisation of film project or the film and the media literacy teaching project for the purpose not connected with the film project or the film and media literacy teaching project.

VIII The applicant's rights and obligations

43. The applicant has the right to revoke the submitted application.

44. The applicant is obliged to ensure that the data submitted in the application is correct. In case incorrect data is submitted, the application shall not be satisfied or the allocated grant has to be returned.
45. The applicant must follow the terms and conditions provided in this statute and the terms and conditions of the co-financing contract.

IX Verification measures

46. The Saaremaa Development Centre has the right to include the Expert committee or independent experts in the realisation of a film project or a film and media literacy teaching project to assess the conformity of the substantive realisation to the content submitted in the application and the compliance of eligible expenditure to the market prices.

X Final provisions

47. After the co-financing contract has been signed, the grant recipient and the executer of the film project or the film and media literacy teaching project undertake to add information about the grant of the Film Fund of Estonian Islands in the final titles of the ready-made work and the materials connected with the advertising and promoting of the work.
48. The grant recipient is obliged to give the Saaremaa Development Centre three digital presentation copies of the finished film project.
49. In case of a film project SAK expects the Grant recipient to conduct a local premiere or a special screening in Saare Country by the author(s) of the work and/or the key person(s) of the team.
50. In the co-financing contract the applicant shall give the Saaremaa Development Centre and the Film Fund of Estonian Islands the right (a non-exclusive licence) to use the supported works in their marketing and other activities in Estonia and other countries.
51. The Film Fund of Estonian Islands reserves the right to make changes in this statute.
